

Professional Development Award
Artists' League of the MoFA
Submission Requirements
2010

The purpose of the Professional Development Award is to help offset a portion of the costs related to attending or developing workshops, conferences, classes, or the buying of equipment or supplies related to the recipient's art or the business of selling his/her art. There will be two awards of $100 made this year.

To apply:

1. The applicant must be a member in good standing of the Artists' League of the Museum of Fine Arts.
2. The applicant must submit a proposal in the form of a letter (no more than one page) outlining what he/she proposes to use the award for and how it will help in his/her professional art career. The proposed activity may be completed before submission of a proposal or any time up until December of 2010. Applicant must include his/her address, phone number and e-mail address.
3. In addition to the proposal letter, the applicant must submit an abbreviated copy of his/her biography or artist's statement and two images of his/her work in the format required for the League's digital registry. Images will become part of the registry.
4. Sometime during the year following the proposed event, the recipient of the Professional Development Award will deliver a short (10 minutes) talk to the membership of the Artists' League about the course, conference or equipment purchased and how this has impacted the recipient's work.
5. The proposal and accompanying materials must be received by Jaye Houle no later than the April 6, 2009 (April Artist's League meeting) and the recipient of the Professional Development award will be announced at the opening reception for the Artist's League's Summer Annual in June 2010.
